

CALI COAST FOODIE

Red House Café Pacific Grove, Ca

Red house café is a cute little restaurant on Lighthouse ave in Pacific Grove, they serve breakfast Lunch and Dinner. I have been for dinner and was not totally enthralled with the food or the price range, this spot is much more popular for their breakfast, but there is often a wait during busy times of week, like sunday morning...

<http://calicoastfoodie.files.wordpress.com/2011/06/the-red-house-cafe-in1.jpg>

I had the Smoked Salmon Eggs Benedict for around 12 bucks. It was amazingly good, one of the best renditions of the dish I have ever had. The eggs were properly poached and the dish was served over, get this, a croissant. MMM. A little on the pricier side of things, but the gourmet style breakfast satisfies.

<http://calicoastfoodie.com/2011/06/21/red-house-cafe-pacific-grove-ca/>